liking what you do, and liking how you do it."
— Maya Angelou

As we dive into the month of love, I'm thrilled to present our February issue featuring the incredible Lilia Ackerman, a relationship coach with a passion for fostering deep connections.

This month's issue is a celebration of the power of relationships, not just in our personal lives but also in our entrepreneurial journeys. Lilia shares her wisdom on building meaningful connections, and I can't wait for you to be inspired by her insights.

I'm truly excited about the positive energy surrounding our growing community. Your collaboration and engagement efforts are what's going to make the magazine a success, I encourage you to share it out far and wide. Together, we are not just embracing the tech woos online; we're reshaping it.

Thank you for being a part of this vibrant community. Let's make February a month filled with love, growth, and empowered connections!

Coach of the Month

Lilia Ackerman

Most people tend to see love, personal, money, spiritual, and business relationships individually, without noticing that they have a strong connection because they need each other for a proper functioning. When you don't have a good relationship with any of the above I just mention, you will find trouble in each of them, because they project into each other its needs, and wants. Most likely people realize this when they are facing a complete emotional event in their life..

There are two kinds of relationships in particular that if you pay attention and work on them, the rest will follow. This is what I call "The Masters of Relationships". Do you want to guess which ones I am talking about? Which ones are messing up with your life goals, and preventing you from experiencing success, and the abundance of life? O.K. I'll tell you in a moment.

But first, let me introduce myself, my name is Lilia Ackerman, I am a Certified Transformational Wellness Master Coach, with more than 20 years of experience in the Wellness Industry. I am known as "The raw truth digger", because I am not afraid of how much I have to dig out to find out what is messing up with your life. My favorite mantra is. Thank you.

10X YOUR BUSINESS REVENUE BY USING AUTOMATED FUNNELS?

In this quest for scaling your revenue, it has become synonymous with mastering the art of your automation process!

AI MARKET TRENDS ARE RISING

In the dynamic landscape of online business, the quest for scaling revenue has become synonymous with mastering the art of automation. For Tech-Savvy Women Over 50, leveraging automated funnels could be the transformative key to unlocking unprecedented growth. Let's delve into how automated funnels can propel your business to new heights.

Research indicates that the online coaching market is projected to exceed $4.5 billion by 2030.

Picture this: A well-oiled machine that works tirelessly, attracting, nurturing, and converting leads—all while you focus on what matters most to you. This is the promise automated funnels bring to the table. As a coach navigating the digital realm, here's how embracing this technology can lead to a substantial 10X increase in your business revenue.

Automated funnels, at their core, are strategic pathways that guide potential clients through a seamless journey from awareness to your high conversions. These funnels are designed to automate repetitive tasks, that will allow you to begin to enjoy nurturing relationships at scale. For Tech-Savvy Women Over 50 coaches, the key lies in tailoring automated funnels to align with your coaching style and the unique needs of your target audience. Whether it's guiding them through a personalized coaching offer or providing them with valuable resources, customization is the cornerstone of success.

Imagine a constant influx of leads without the manual effort.

10X YOUR BUSINESS REVENUE

LEADERSHIP & MANAGEMENT

In the pursuit of 10X business revenue through automated funnels, leadership plays a pivotal role in setting the vision, inspiring innovation, and guiding the team towards overarching goals. Effective leadership fosters a culture of adaptability, where leveraging automated systems becomes a strategic choice rather than a mere operational function.

Management, in the context of 10Xing business revenue with automated funnels, entails the tactical implementation and optimization of these systems. Efficient management ensures that the automated funnels are aligned with business objectives, customer needs, and market dynamics.

www.instantaifunnels.com

EMPOWERING WOMEN CAPITAL

Automated funnels excel in lead generation, capturing your leads and segmenting them based on their interests and/or their preferences. This targeted approach ensures you engage with potential clients more effectively.

Building lasting connections is vital. Automated funnels enable you to nurture client relationships through automated email sequences, delivering valuable content, and strategically timed follow-ups. This personalized touch fosters trust and engagement.

Closing sales becomes a seamless process with automated sales funnels. By guiding leads through a series of well-crafted steps, you not only will you enjoy enhancing your users experience but you'll also increase the likelihood of more conversions.

One of the unsung heroes of automated funnels is the wealth of data they generate. Analytics provide insights into user behavior, allowing you to refine and optimize your strategies based on real-time data.

Tech-Savvy Women Over 50 often seek time freedom. Automated funnels empower you to reclaim time spent on manual tasks, giving you the freedom to focus on what you do best—coaching.

In conclusion, we live in a world where time is a precious commodity, automated funnels stand as a beacon of efficiency. Embrace the power of automation, and witness your coaching business soar to new heights. It's time to not just scale but to 10X your business revenue by integrating automated funnels into your coaching journey.

3 Obstacles that can level up, or destroy your relationships.

The answer to my question are the first two obstacles; having a bad relationship with yourself and your spirituality. The third one is inner conflict.

There is a paradigm that changed my life forever; "Whatever you experience on the outside, it is a reflection from the inside". This one is projecting your inner conflicts.

Working with clients I have seen that this paradigm is very accurate because as soon as we identify the self-conflict that is connected with the life pattern that has your life upside down, everything is fixed instantly. Conflicts don't go anywhere until you face them, work, and heal from them, otherwise, they will remain in your subconscious and they will be triggered over and over by the external world, increasing the intensity of the internal chaos. It will prevent you from succeeding, moving on, and to accomplish your life goals.

My Story

I am giving you a scenario to make it transparent on how one internal conflict can affect your entire life, and what to do about it.

For decades my name was Chaos! LOL, well I am laughing now, but trust me, I wasn't laughing before. My personal, spiritual, love, money, family, self self-relationships were a complete disaster. Everything changed after my second suicidal attempt at the age of twenty-seven. I woke up without noticing I had been sleeping for a long time; the The first thing I heard was the little voices of my girls. I felt ashamed of myself, but very thankful that I was alive. I had a deep conversation with God, and that was my turning point, I didn't have a plan, or how I was going to get out of my messy life, but one thing was for sure, I knew exactly what I didn't want anymore in my life.

RELATIONSHIP COACH

Lilia Ackerman

Connecting the dots..

My self conflict was that I felt that I didn't deserve love, and this belief created rejection issues that was preventing me from moving on with my business, to offer my services, to charge, because unconsciously I was terrifying to hear the word "NO".

On my healing journey I found out that everything started in my childhood, that was the root of all my troubles! Forgiveness took place, not just for the people who did me wrong, but also forgiving myself for believing, and accepting emotional, and physical abuse.

MARCIA NATHAI-BALKISSOON

Here's a Powerful Approach to Change Your Life for the Better

What matters is not that you join the bandwagon in timing your efforts to improve, but that you don't give up on helping yourself to get more joy and fulfillment out of your own life. That's how I explain what I think it means to thrive in my life, and I do believe we are all deserving and capable of doing so even with whatever big challenges we are facing at work, in our relationships or finances or health, or at home.

There is something much more important than making a list of 10 or 20 resolutions to start living an almost impossibly perfect life as the clock clicks over to start a new year. That is to support yourself to make small improvements in just a few areas that will meaningfully improve your experience of your life, AND that you will be able to keep on doing them, so the level ups become your norm.

by Marcia Nathai-Balkissoon, Ph.D.,
Level Up and Thrive Coach

Maybe you ran out of time in the busyness of the holiday season, and didn't get to pause long enough to set your New Year Resolutions. Maybe you chose to stay away from setting yourself up for failure by simply not setting pie-in-the-sky must-dos that you wouldn't keep up for even the first month. Maybe it feels like idiocy to be a sheep who sets out to create a better you, just because everybody else decided January 1 is the best time to kick-start such a journey.

Well, whatever your situation or rationale, it's almost certain there's some area in your life that could do with a good up-leveling. And, of course, you can start that up leveling whenever you want to, whether that's at the stroke of midnight on January 1, on your birthday, or not until 3:12 p.m. on some random date of the year, that appeals to you.

AUTHOR &

LEVEL UP AND THRIVE

So, try this instead. Ask yourself what are the 2 or 3 areas of your life where you experience the most worry or frustration or some other kind of pain. Then, for each of those areas, decide on one small change YOU can make in your thinking or behaviour that would improve how life feels to you.

YOU CAN START NOW!

Know your customers, know your numbers, and know your team

In this three part series, Doris dives into the first key to financial success: understanding your customers inside out. It's not just about knowing their names; it's about having the real-deal data to get the lowdown on customer insights. Think market segmentation—diving deep into demographics, geography, and psychographics. We're talking about the nitty-gritty of how we target, attract, snag, and turn leads into full-fledged customers. It's knowing the ins and outs of purchasing patterns, the average dough each client brings in, and the magic behind marketing and content that turns casual viewers into die-hard customers.

Where are your Customers?

And hey, it's not just about the now; it's about knowing where your customers are coming from—tracking the sources of your customer traffic. Throw in a bit about customer tenure, especially for those rocking the membership business model.

THE MONEY GIRL

Doris Yip, CFO

Customer Retention

Knowing your numbers is the second financial success pillar. Do you know business is defined as organized for profit? However, many businesses fail due to lack of cash flow and profit to sustain the business. To avoid cash and profit leaks, we help our clients audit their expenses to understand potential leakage and make sure expenses are not growing faster than revenue. To ensure everyone in the business is working on profit generating activities, we first have to define the most critical number in the business that moves the needle. Let's do this!

4 The Love of Creating 4 U

"Unconditional Love" this was a fun piece to create. The mom and child in this piece are in a place of calmness and content because they are embracing one another. When you look at this picture the only thing that comes to mind is love. This piece will give off a loving energy in any space you decide to grace its presence with. The dots painted on the mother's dress, apron, shirt and hair has a beautiful texture, along with the babies hair. The background is a beautiful abstract design that consist of vibrant bright colors of blues, yellows, reds, black, purple and orange.
